1. Walking down the high street with my take away
    Consume doom, doom, doom, consume doom, doom
    Send it to the landfill and have a nice day
    Consume doom, etc.
    (Ba-du-ba) Yeah, it won't bi-o-de-grade,
    (Ba-du-ba) Yeah it's all man made.
    (Ba-du-ba) Yeah the workers are badly paid
    Consume doom, doom, doom, consume doom, doom
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away,
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away,
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away, Stop!

2. Walking down the hi-igh street I sa-aw the light
    Consume doom, doom, doom, consume doom, doom
    Looked into the future and ha-ad a fright
    Consume doom, etc.
    (Ba-du-ba) Yeah, it's looking bad
    (Ba-du-ba) Yeah the world's gone mad.
    (Ba-du-ba) What happened to the earth we had?
    Consume doom, doom, doom, consume doom, doom
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away,
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away,
            Take away, throw away, Take away, throw away, Stop!

3. No-ow's the time for us to turn this round
    It's our wake-up call, it's our wake-up call
    Plant more trees instead of cutting them down
    It's our wake-up call, it's our wake-up call
    (Ba-du-ba) Let's end this pollu-u-ution
    (Ba-du-ba) That's part of the solu-u-ution
    (Ba-du-ba) And we need a revolu-u-ution
    It's our wake-up call, it's our wake-up call.
            SUStainability, SUStainability, biodiversity, biodiversity,
            care for the earth, care for each other and more!

4. Walking down the high street with my spade and hoe
    We PLANT our own now, we plant our own
    Digging up potato-oes and watching beans grow
    We plant our own now, we plant our own
    (Ba-du-ba) Solar panels on the old town hall
    (Ba-du-ba) Green jobs make a living for all,
    (Ba-du-ba) Working together is our answer to the call
    It's our wake-up call, it's our wake-up call.
            SUStainability, SUStainability, biodiversity, biodiversity,
            care for the earth, care for each other and more!
