

SOLIDARITY SONG (starts on B<sup>b</sup>)

Bertolt Brecht. Arr. Tyneside People's Choir

Chorus:

Forward and let's remember
What our strength always was
And shall be
In famine or in plenty
Forward and remember:
It's solidarity.

Peoples of this earth rise up now
For this earth is now your due
It shall be the great provider
And it shall provide for you. (Chorus)

And our various lords and masters
Welcome our disunity
For so long as they divide us
Lords and masters they shall be. (Chorus)

Peoples of this earth together
End the rule of sword and gun
For when once you raise your voices
All the peoples shall be one

(Coda)

Forward and ask the question
What our strength concretely is worth
In famine or in plenty
Whose tomorrow is tomorrow?
And whose earth is the earth?
