

WHERE TO NOW?

Tune traditional: Wairua. Arr. Rebecca Gross.

Words: Heidi Proctor, Raised Voices

Fled my war-torn homeland
And got this far, got this far, got this far.
Europe's closed her borders,
So where to now? Can't go back, can't go on.
I nearly drowned, I lost my friends.
Where can I go? What can I do?
I must move on, please don't send me back.
This I did not choose, you wouldn't either.

(Repeat once)

Sometimes sung with When Death Was Behind Me (below) between the verse and repeat.

WHEN DEATH WAS BEHIND ME ©

Tune, traditional. Words by Alison Burns.

Verse 1

(Altos alone sing these words:)

I had nothing and they clothed me,
Nothing [left to lose] and they gave me water,
Nothing, and they fed me
A long way from home.

Verse 2

(Altos and Sops sing the above words each in their own part, while Tenors/Basses sing: 'Wade in the water')

Verse 3:

(Altos and Sops sing in unison, while Tenors/Basses sing: 'Wade in the water':)

When death was behind me,
When death was a chasing at my heels,
When death was all around me
I gave up my life to the sea.

Verse 4: (Repeat Verse 3 exactly as above.)
